Dear Charlie:

Thank you for writing me on 22 November 1960 about speaking before the Chicago Council on Foreign Relations.

As I indicated to Mr. Robert Wilcox, President of your Council, in my reply to him, I am of course pleased to have received an invitation from your Council. I hope that I can make it sometime next year, but I will have to put it aside until sometime next March, when I will be able to see more clearly my schedule for what will be a very busy year.

Thanks also to you and Mrs. Bane for your invitation to stay at your home if such a visit to Chicago transpires.

Sincerely,

SIGNED
